Land Adjacent To Cable Airport Rezoned

By Patricia Reid
Of The News Staff

Upland City Council adopted an ordinance Monday night to rezone 36.6 acres east of Cable Airport to M-1 (light manufacturing) and voted 3-2 against rezoning .6 acres in a triangular shape parcel from agricultural to M-1.

Paul N. Cable, manager of Cable Airport, objected to the Council's action on April 16 when they reversed their original vote to keep the .6 acre area as "Open Zone" and voted 3-2 to zone it M-1. Cable again pointed out that the triangular parcel could not be included in the airport's clear zone if zoned M-1 and that the airport could never expand.

The council voted 3-2 (with Gibson and Councilman John McCarthy dissenting) to adopt a resolution drafted by Mayor Abner B. Haldeman supporting future development of Ontario International Airport. Representatives from the West San Bernardino County League of Women Voters presented information from their twelve months study of airport expansion and urged the council to hold off supporting the resolution until the Northrup noise report comes out the end of the month. The league cited many factors affected by airport expansion such as land use patterns and zoning, environmental quality and economic impact. Gibson stated he doesn't think the airport affects Upland and objected to the council passing the resolution "since we aren't really concerned."

McCarthy pointed out that the resolution just duplicated a similar action taken by the council several years ago. Councilman Hal Bailin said the resolution wasn't in support of any particular plan for development, but was only a "general pat on the back."

Revenue sharing funds and proposed Civic Center funding opened another "pandora's box" of discussion. Haldeman presented a fact sheet concerning funding of "construction phase two" for the Civic Center and urged that the council "move along" with the project. Bailin strongly objected to several items in the fact sheet and finally was successful in his motion to postpone action on the Civic Center funding issue until the May 21 meeting -- after the Mayor's Advisory Committee has given a report on the matter.

Bailin asked: why the total revenue sharing funds for '72-'73 were now increased by $48,000 from what they were in December; why other projects aren't considered with the increase in funds; and what $40,000 listed as "rental of buildings on site" referred to. He stated that there was "too much haste in moving this thing forward" and that the council wasn't listening to recommendations from the Advisory Committee. McCarthy also stated that the Advisory Committee's recommendations should most definitely be taken into consideration. Bailin also objected because the issue wasn't announced publicly and to the fact that public hearings weren't announced concerning the expenditure of additional revenue sharing funds.

City Finance Director Robert Kendro presented a detailed description of revenue sharing appropriations through Dec. 31, 1974. Kendro admitted that the revenue sharing estimates given in December were guidelines and "only accepted in principle." He said the city staff now has more refined information concerning the funding and that the revenue sharing estimates have been increased.

A resolution to initiate condemnation proceedings for sewer and drainage purposes on property owned by Raymond L. Berry on 24th St. was put off calendar on the recommendation of city attorney Donald Maroney. He said a tentative tract plan must be filed along with an environmental impact report on the proposed construction before legal action could begin.

The vote was unanimous to grant a conditional use-permit for the city's first Planned Residential Development (PRD) of 90 units on the second 10 acre east of Mountain Ave. on Arrow Highway.

Five out of six Planning Commission initiated amendments to the Upland Municipal Code were approved. Several had to do with wall regulations on reverse corner lots. An amendment to reduce the minimum requirement for Planned Unit Developments (PUD) from 10 to 8 acres was defeated.

After some discussion it was agreed that the 23rd St. improvement district matter should be referred back to the Street and Light Committee so that meetings can be held with affected property owners. The majority of property owners spoke against the improvement district.

Hawkins moved to table indefinitely a resolution requesting dissolution of the Chino Basin Water Conservation District.

City Manager Elwin "Pinky" Alder reported that the Rapid Transit District bus contract would be signed this week with RTD and Ontario and that the first bus service should begin May 21. Reverend A. Clark Robbins of the First United Methodist Church of Upland addressed the council regarding the urgent need for improved bus transportation for senior citizens and other poor people. Haldeman appointed Rev. Robbins as head to select a 15 member committee of community leaders which would be approved by the council to really study the transportation problem and try to come up with solutions.

Bids were awarded for improvements for Sierra Vista and 13th St. Reservoir Park and for playground equipment for Sierra Vista.

Requests by Pop Warner football leagues for additional lights at practice fields at Pioneer Junior High were referred to upcoming budget sessions.

Gibson and Hawkins reported on their recent trip to Scottsdale, Arizona to observe their new civic center. Gibson objected to the open space concept and said the city offices were very crowded for space. "It was noisy and not very private," Gibson said.

Hawkins said: "I didn't lose my enthusiasm for the open space concept in Scottsdale." He said he didn't feel Upland would have the same problems with the new concept as Scottsdale does.

Gibson said the biggest objection to the free and open civic center concept was from the Scottsdale Chief of Police. The building department said they wouldn't "go for the open concept" again.

Tax-Exempt Animal Shelter In Upland?

Because this week is national "Be Kind to Animals Week" and because of recent letters to the Upland City Council about dog nuisances, the News is doing an investigation into the animal control situation. This is the first in a series focusing on Upland's philosophy of animal control.

--Editor.

Recently an Upland resident wrote to the city council about the possibility of starting a tax-exempt animal shelter in the city -- the letter enclosed a newspaper article on a successful shelter started by the North Shore Animal League in Port Washington, N.Y.

During 1972 the League found homes for 3,000 cats and dogs working with space the size of a couple of private garages ... and it never puts animals to sleep. All workers at the 27-year-old, private, non-profit League are volunteers. Alexander Lewyt, one of the founders of the League, said: "We put our efforts into getting more animals adopted, instead of building more space."

At the council meeting Mayor Abner B. Haldeman remarked that Upland has an "animal control" philosophy which was much different than a non-profit, shelter type situation.

Upland Police Chief John Wessely explained that Upland's animal shelter, which is located in the city yards at 1460 N. Campus, is administered by the Police Department and is a short-term holding facility for unlicensed-unleashed dogs that are picked up by Otis Braden, the city's only animal control officer. Chief Wessely emphasized that the city is in the animal control business to impound neighborhood problem dogs and doesn't make any attempt to find homes for dogs.

At the past couple of council meetings irate citizens have complained about dog nuisances and packs of dogs. In both cases police officers have reported the situation had been investigated and brought under control. In most cases it's unleashed and unlicensed dogs which cause the complaints.

The Campus Ave. shelter was built according to police plans at a cost of $2,500 in 1960. Because of the doubling of population in the city since 1960 and the parallel increase in the number of pets owned by apartment dwellers, etc., there's a real need for enlarged shelter facilities and the addition of another animal control officer.

Chief Wessely said he will request these two items during the upcoming city budget sessions. He explained that the task of policing neighborhoods to pick up stray dogs is too great for one officer -- he usually goes to an area after a caller complains about a situation.

According to Wessely, the majority of residents in the city favor a strict policing function by the city to handle animal nuisances and there's little support of "adoption type" animal shelter facilities or of humane society-operated animal control.

He said that surrounding cities have contracted with Ontario Humane Society for the task -- Upland has been asked, but they've never desired the service. The humane society has a large staff which allows greater enforcement of animal control laws through animal census and license checks, and an increased awareness of the shelter by the public. It is definitely in the animal placement business -- whereas the city police is not.

Wessely reported that Upland dog license fees increased last year so they'd be competitive with surrounding cities.

As of March, the city had processed 2,384 animal complaints since last June compared to 1,921 complaints processed in '72. The number of unlicensed-unleashed animals picked up has jumped from 581 last year to 822 with three months left to record this year.

Uplander Killed In Auto Mishap

An Upland woman died Monday night when the car she was driving ran a stop sign, swerved out of control and flipped over, police reported.

The woman, Sheryl Jean Thomas, 27, of 434 Fairwood Way, Apt. B, Upland was dead on arrival at San Antonio Community Hospital.

Mrs. Thomas was found lying on West 11th St., Upland, in front of Upland High School. She was thrown from her auto which was found flipped over, approximately 30 feet from her body.

Witnesses told Upland police the car sped through a stop sign at 11th St. and San Antonio Ave. at 10:30 p.m. The auto, which was eastbound on 11th St., was traveling between 50 and 70 mph where it hit a slight dip at the intersection, according to accounts by witnesses.

The auto swerved out of control, hit a side curb, seemed to come under control and then flipped over approximately one block from the intersection, police said.

Immediately prior to the accident, Mrs. Thomas had a discussion with her former husband in her Upland apartment, police said.

Chamber Moving Beyond Clean-Up Week

Several curious Upland residents have called us about the lack of "Clean-up" month this year. Last year the Upland Chamber of Commerce sponsored the week-long push to clean up the city as it has frequently in years past.

Chamber Manager Tony Malone explained that the Chamber felt it should be (and is) attacking the massive environmental problems on broader and more far-reaching levels than merely to stage a month-long "Clean-up" campaign.

Dr. Henry Childs Jr., chairman of the Chamber's environmental management committee, said: "Traditional environmental projects have their role, but they are not what I see as our committee's task."

"We're talking about problems that affect the entire Los Angeles basin and even the nation. We are affected by air, noise and water pollution and just too many people. We should focus on things which, to me, doesn't mean picking up beer cans," Childs explained.

Dr. Childs is vice president of instruction at Chaffey College. He has set the attitude against community clean up programs for Upland chamber this year.

Malone also explained that the cost to the city of picking up old refrigerators, stoves and other heavy items is very high. The chamber feels they made one big step in environmental progress this year by getting the Air Pollution Control District (APCD) in San Bernardino to install a smog monitoring station in Upland -- which had been promised for a long time.

New President Of League Named Here

Mrs. John Meyer of Upland has been named president of the League of Women Voters of West San Bernardino County.

Other officers elected recently at the league's annual meeting are the Mmes. Arvid Wedin and John Fentiman, vice presidents; Harold McClaughlin, secretary; and S. L. Wolters, treasurer.

Serving on the executive board are the Mmes. Richard Cobb, Joseph Johnson, Wilmot Keller.

A study of land use, with possible consideration of agricultural zones, green belts, housing, industry, transportation and environmental quality was adopted as the league's local study item for the coming year.

LAURELS OF VICTORY -- Members of the Upland High School band display trophies the band won at the Performing Arts Abroad Music Festival in Hawaii.

Upland High Band Wins Two Awards

Upland High School Band Director Al Warren said he's had many comments lately from students who were suddenly regretful they'd "dropped band" earlier in the year. Most likely this sudden enthusiasm for band and music has something to do with the week-long Hawaii tour and the two full weeks of vacation band students enjoyed.

From talking with band members who made the recent trip, it seems as though all plans went off as scheduled and the band returned home with two impressive trophies. The symphonic band earned a silver medal trophy and a "superior" rating. The stage band was awarded a bronze trophy and an "excellent" rating.

Students said the festival wasn't like what they expected or the typical competition on the mainland. They played a total of five concerts in Hawaii and had two scheduled rehearsals.

The group stayed at the Moana Hotel in Waikiki -- distinguished as the "oldest" hotel on the islands (it's 72 years old). Other Southern California high school bands were also staying at the hotel, and there was some socializing.

Being 30 feet from a beautiful beach was the single most wonderful feature of the entire trip to the students. About 20 band members tried surfing for the first time (including several girls). Many went glider riding in the woods and really thought this was a "fantastic experience."

In the five days on the island the band members said they had quite a lot of freedom to see things they wanted to and to soak in some of the warm Hawaiian rays. With the exception of a few mild rainstorms, the weather was nice, they said.

Warren said a highlight of the tour was being invited to give a special concert by the Moana Hotel in the large bandstand area. Another odd experience was a concert at Wainae High School on the northern part of the island of Oahu -- it was given in a small quonset hut and the sound vibrations were very noisy! One night the festival judges had to sit out in the rain under umbrellas to judge a concert performance.

Two-thirds of the students said they felt the earthquake which occurred the Thursday they were in Hawaii on the big island of Hawaii. About 35 of them called their folks to tell them "everything was okay" and only a couple parents bothered to call the students. Apparently a local radio station's broadcast alerted most families that the band wasn't harmed by the earthquake.

Warren emphasized what a "good deal" the students got for

Bailin Still Upset At New City Hall

Upland City Councilman Harold A. Bailin Monday continued his battle with the city administration and his four fellow councilmen over the issue of the funding of a new city hall.

"Have you decided this is the No. 1 priority to the exclusion of everything else in the community?" he asked the other council members.

Bailin was irked after hearing a proposal to transfer $765,000 into a city fund for construction of a new city hall.

Included in the transfer was $274,000 from the city's receipts of federal revenue sharing funds during the year 1972-74.

Included in the report of revenue sharing funds presented by City Finance Director Robert Kendro was $48,000 in excess of the staff's original estimate.

Bailin complained that the $48,000 and the entire $274,000 in revenue sharing funds were about to be earmarked to the civic center without citizen input in the matter.

Supplies to be brought to the first class meeting are white glue, 1/2 inch wide brush, plastic container with lid, white and colored paper (all types, tissue, wrapping, etc.), 16" x 20" or larger piece of Celulox (bulletin board material), a pie tin, and a large sheet of plastic, 4' x 5' or larger.

For further information, contact the Upland Recreation Department at 982-1352, ext. 55 or 56.

'Good Old Days' Celebration June 8-9 In Upland

BY PATRICIA REID

Many Upland Town-Center merchants and customers still think of the remodeling of the center as a fairly recent occurrence — to most the Kiosk seems like "a new addition."

This year's "Good Old Days" celebration June 8 and June 9 will mark the fifth anniversary of the concourse and the fifth year the traditional celebration has taken place in UTC.

The "wheels are turning" at Upland Chamber of Commerce and within the Town Center Merchants Association in preparation for an entertaining and enjoyable holiday, with many activities being scheduled, including, among other things, cash awards for the best costumes. Straw hats, mustaches, bustles, high button shoes and all other items which made up the fashions of yesteryears will prevail among merchants and local citizenry during this year's two-day festivities. More than 6,000 people jammed the Town Center June 29, 1968 for the official opening of the new concourse and to await the drawing for the Mustang. (Winner of the coveted Mustang was Mrs. Gladys Smith of 175 S. Second Ave., who held ticket 966951).

The Upland Junior Women's Club members were official hostesses for the opening day event; entertainment was provided by the Alta Loma High Banana Boat School Band and the Francis Avenue Singers.

Civic and cultural groups set up booths on the concourse. Special attractions for the younger set included the Mitchell Marionettes, the circulating clowns with balloons and the Tinker Town Train. The Old Time Fair atmosphere continued for a couple of days with band organs and penny arcade.

The official dedication ceremony began at 2:30 p.m. on Saturday, June 29. Councilwoman Zella Stone was Mistress of Ceremonies for the event and gave opening remarks. City officials were on hand for the opening as were visiting mayors and county and state officials.

According to the statistics given in the program, the "Revitalization Committee" was appointed on April 16, 1966. Total project cost was $332,000.

Cucamonga Night Set At Angels Stadium

"Cucamonga District Night" at Angels Stadium is slated for May 16. The special baseball night is in honor of player Rollie Fingers—known as the Cucamonga Kid.

The event is cosponsored by the Alta Loma High School student body and the Cucamonga District Chamber of Commerce. Ticket price is $6.00 including bus transportation from Alta Loma High and terrace seats on first base side. Roach Linea buses will leave ALHS at 6 p.m. Wednesday night. Those interested should send checks with reservations to the Cucamonga District Chamber of Commerce, 9554 Foothill Blvd., P.O. Box 236, Cucamonga.

Unite: 'Ride--They Said'

Many people in Alta Loma love the area's country atmosphere and are working hard to retain the unspoiled feeling. "The horse owners would like to see Alta Loma become a permanent horse community," said Mrs. Pete Meyer.

Although horse owners have always been attracted to the area because of the large lots and open spaces, lately there's been more of a determined effort by members of the Alta Loma Riding Club particularly, to work towards preserving the sport of horseback riding in the community.

Pete Meyer, this year's president of the riding club, has spearheaded a yeoman's effort to map out equestrian trails along county flood control channels and elsewhere as part of a proposal for county-wide recreational trails. So far Alta Loma has taken the lead of all the cities in the county to set up a system of equestrian trails. "The club feels trails are essential in order to keep horses and to keep safe places for people to ride," said Mrs. Meyer.

Equestrian trails are being planned to run alongside bike trails in Alta Loma—Cucamonga. There seems to be a growing comradeship between those supporting bike trails and those supporting horse trails. The two groups of people are presently planning an "Ecology Ride" in which all community residents will be encouraged to join in and either hike, ride bikes or ride horses and pick up papers to show that residents are concerned about where they live.

Mrs. Meyer said the horse owners and riding club members would be signing petitions to be sent to the county Board of Supervisors to show support of bikeway trails as well as equestrian trails.

The riding club has been organized for about six years and now has a restricted membership of 50 families — a total of about 300 persons belong. Mrs. Meyer explained that it was necessary to close membership so that the members would be sure to put in their fair stint in working to clean-up and maintain the ring located at 3649 Sapphire in Alta Loma.

In addition to sponsoring horse shows and other competitive events, the club also holds vaccination clinics for horses and alerts horse owners of items of vital concern.

Last Saturday a special horsemanship and training clinic was held at the ring for all horse owners in the area. Next month a second "VEE" vaccination clinic will be held in the ring. Mrs. Meyer said a similar "VEE" clinic was given a year ago in Alta Loma at which time 800 horses were vaccinated. This "VEE" is a unique disease which is very harmful to horses.

On the fourth Sunday of every month an open horse show is held at the ring with recognized judges present. Also, six Gym-Khana shows are held the first Sunday of each month in the spring. Proceeds from these shows are the basic source of income for the riding club. All shows are open to the public for participation or spectating.

Over $500 was spent last year for trophies for the club. Pete Meyer donated a special trophy called the "Meyer Challenge Trophy" for the best horse of the year award. General membership meetings are held monthly at Pizza Royale in the Sunrise Center. Movies about riding are often features.

On Sunday, May 20, Pete Meyer will lead the "President's Ride" — a lengthy organized trail ride which begins at the ring at 8 a.m. Anyone interested can ride along -- beer and soft drinks will be served on the ride and homemade enchiladas are featured afterwards. Contact Mr. Enriquez at 987-1651 for information.

Meyer has researched and written a magazine article titled "Rancho Beautiful" featuring Alta Loma's country atmosphere, wherein he emphasizes the horse riding sport in the area, for Homebuyer's Guide magazine — a guide to Southern California residential real estate. Mrs. Meyer mentioned how hard it is to find a place to ride horses any more in Alta Loma. Fire trails in Cucamonga Creek are fraught with motorcycles and trucks and can't be used in summer months due to high fire hazards, and streets are getting more and more congested with cars.

She brought out that many of the newer tract homes are "ranch style" with 1/2 acre lots. Owners can have two horses, but there isn't enough land to ride them. The club's ring provides a solution for this problem, Mrs. Meyer said. "It's getting more and more difficult to find horse property any more." And yet, she said there will be one million registered quarter horses in the US by next year. Apparently the horseback riding sport is just as popular as ever -- it's just harder to find a place to ride!

The club also has a junior section for 13-18 year olds. Last year the kids donated a pull motor and practice dummy to the Alta Loma Fire Department from proceeds of a charity horse show they held.

The Meyers are in the horse breeding and showing business. They plan to travel to the U.S. national Arabian champion ship in Oklahoma City this summer.

Remember the Boston Tea Party?

The men of colonial Boston staged their historic "Tea Party" on December 16, 1773 to show King George III how they felt about high taxes. Since these taxes were voted in England, the Colonies had no voice in the matter.

It was purely "taxation without representation". Disguised as Indians, a band of citizens threw the contents of 342 chests of tea into the bay.

This spectacular event that took place 200 years ago, could surely be classified as one of the most dramatic events that sparked the revolution of '76 that ultimately lead to a free nation.

An event that we today can be justly thankful for, it helped set the pattern for what we know today as the greatest nation in the world.

Avocado Platter As Summertime Treat

Warmer evenings naturally turn thoughts to the cool out-of-doors for dining and entertaining.

On those evenings, when you'd like to serve guests a more formal meal than the backyard barbecue, but one just as easy, consider a patio or garden buffet.

The nice thing about this style of entertaining is that most of the table setting and meal preparation can be done ahead, leaving you free to enjoy your guests.

To accompany early evening "happy-talk," set up a tray of icy-cold goblets filled with a spicy tomato juice cocktail. Thin celery stalks with leafy tops make tasty swizzlers to poke in each glass.

For an elegant, but hearty main dish, serve picture-perfect Party Aspic Platter. This cool beauty cradles juicy slices of tender roast beef, sliced baby carrots and velvety green-gold California avocado in the tenderest of wine flavored aspics. Prepared ahead, this luscious jewel of a main dish holds all day in the refrigerator.

A tasty side dish to serve along with the Party Aspic Platter might be your favorite potato or macaroni salad. Prepare it early and refrigerate it all day too. At serving time, pile the salad into individual leaf cups on a pretty tray — party dress them with capers and hard-cooked egg wedges. Or if you prefer a hot dish, potatoes au gratin is another delicious casserole that can be assembled early and baked at the last minute.

Serve the meal with sliced loaves of crusty rye bread — and if you have time, fix some homemade sweet butter balls to go with it. Dessert is another easy "spectacular". On a large tray, turn out an assortment of ice cream and sherberts (from different shaped containers). Surround them with fresh fruits of the season, strawberries, fresh pineapple, peaches and melon balls. Guests will love it and you too!

When purchasing avocados for the Party Aspic Platter, buy several more than you need and use them in a lovely centerpiece for your buffet table. We combined ours with fresh parsley and bright red cherry tomatoes. As the avocados ripen, enjoy them at your leisure — they're wonderful in dips, hot weather salads, and sandwiches. They pack a mighty good load of nutrition, too — 11 vitamins, 17 minerals and only 132 calories in the average half

PARTY ASPIC PLATTER
1/4 cup dry red wine
3/4 cup water
1 envelope unflavored gelatin
1 (10-1/2 oz.) can beef consomme, undiluted
2 ripe California avocados
Lemon juice
2 (16-oz.) cans whole baby carrots, drained
8 to 12 slices cooked roast beef

fresh parsley (optional)
thick lemon slices (optional)
(Day before, or early in the day)

In measuring cup, combine the wine and water; sprinkle gelatin over to soften. Add gelatin mixture to consomme; heat gently until gelatin dissolves. Refrigerate consomme until thick and syrupy. Meanwhile, halve avocados lengthwise; remove seed and peel. Cut into lengthwise slices; sprinkle with lemon juice. In deep platter arrange one section of carrots, one section of overlapping roast beef slices and one section of avocado slices; refrigerate. When consomme mixture is syrupy, spoon it over carrots, roast beef and avocado, being careful to cover all surfaces; refrigerate. If desired, at serving time, garnish with parsley and lemon slices.

Makes 4 to 6 servings.

TASTY TREAT -- Avocado Salad Pie In-the-Round makes luncheon an affair to remember.

Soybeans--High In Protein, 'Natural' Meat Substitute

Consumers are searching for new ways to extend their food dollars and seeking new ideas for main dishes high in protein but less pinching on the pocketbook. They are more aware and interested in knowledge about nutrition, but apparently know little about foods high in protein with the exception of meat. It is the aim of the food industry, educators and nutrition experts to make material available to the consumer concerning alternate sources for protein.

There are many other excellent sources of protein besides meat--dried peas, beans, cheese, eggs, peanut butter, nuts and soybeans. With the scientific knowledge of today, many foods can be processed which are far superior to the original product. This is particularly true of the soybean. So let's take a look at soybeans.

Soybeans were cultivated as early as 4,000 years ago in China but the nutrient value was unknown and it wasn't until 1728 when it was determined that some plants were a source of protein. Since 1934 a number of Agricultural Experiment Stations in the United States have been growing and testing types of soybeans, either green or dried, which are particularly adapted for use as everyday table vegetables.

From soybeans we can make textured vegetable protein. It is lower in cost than meat, but equally as nutritious. Therefore, the United States Department of Agriculture Sept. 4, 1970 permitted textured vegetable proteins in the National School Lunch Program. There were certain stipulations to be followed: no more than 30 percent hydrated textured vegetable protein could be used in combination with meat products in this program.

If your child eats in the school cafeteria, he has probably tried it as the majority of schools in Los Angeles - San Bernardino Counties are using textured vegetable proteins in combination with ground beef for hamburgers, chili dogs, spaghetti, etc. We would guess you have tried it too -- by sprinkling bacon flavored bits of soy on baked potato and tossed green salads.

Peanuts--Good In Soups, Salads And Snacks

"The American public loves peanuts, but it doesn't necessarily respect them," says Jack Springer of the National Peanut Council.

"Peanuts are more than just finger food. They're one of the best meat substitutes around - a fact that many Americans are just beginning to realize."

"If you mix peanuts and sunflower seeds together, you have an excellent substitute for hamburger, although there are many other ways of including peanuts in your meals," he said.

"The peanut is not a nut," he explained. "It's a legume, and when it was brought here from Africa it was known as a goober or a ground nut."

Historical background of this legume indicates that the world's peanuts originated in South America. Then around 1630, when Spanish Conquistadors came to South America for gold, they discovered peanuts. They took the nuts back to Spain where they became an important crop.

Spanish traders took them to Africa and swapped them for spices and elephant tusks. During the 18th century, slave traders en route to America with slaves bought the cheapest food available in Africa -- peanuts. And when they disembarked the leftover peanuts found their way ashore.

"It's an interesting plant," he says. "It grows about 18 inches high, then has little flowers. From each flower there grows a stem that goes down into the earth and ends up being a peanut. The growing period is about three months," he adds.

"They grow best, commercially, in warm climates. But I've known people to grow them in the north. I wouldn't say they produced any bumper crops, but they're fun for the home gardener."

In this country, peanuts are grown from Virginia to the Southwest in Oklahoma and Texas. They can be grown by home gardeners, too, Mr. Springer says, although you must be sure to use the unroasted peanuts when planting.

"It's an interesting plant," he says. "It grows about 18 inches high, then has little flowers. From each flower there grows a stem that goes down into the earth and ends up being a peanut. The growing period is about three months," he adds.

"They grow best, commercially, in warm climates. But I've known people to grow them in the north. I wouldn't say they produced any bumper crops, but they're fun for the home gardener."

"A lot of peanuts are used in peanut butter," Mr. Springer said, "and one-quarter billion pounds of them were used in candy last year."

"Many people are using natural peanut butter today. You'll notice it in the refrigerated cases at your supermarkets. I'm often asked what the difference is, and as far as I can find out the commercial peanut butter has had nothing taken away from it. But it does have an additive, a hydrogenated oil for keeping the peanut oil in suspension rather than having it come to the top as it does in the natural peanut butter."

Here are some recipes using peanuts, one of them for peanut soup from the Hotel Roanoke.

VIRGINIA PEANUT SOUP

2 cups chicken broth
2 tablespoons butter
2 tablespoons flour
2 tablespoons chopped peanuts
1/4 teaspoon salt
1/4 onion, diced
1 branch celery, sliced
1/2 cup peanut butter
Dash celery salt
1 teaspoon lemon juice

Melt butter in saucepan; add onion and celery. Sauté for five minutes but do not brown. Add flour and mix until flour is well blended with butter. Add hot chicken broth and cook for 30 minutes. Remove from heat, strain broth. Stir the peanut butter, celery salt, salt, and lemon juice into the strained broth. Sprinkle chopped peanuts on the soup just before serving.

Walnut Takes Hacienda League

BRAVES AND THE MUSTANGS -- Alta Loma was keyed for an upset victory over what is now the Hacienda League's number one team, Walnut, but managed to come only within eight, losing 12-4. The Braves' season has been disappointing for them after a 5-0 season record.

Montclair Swimmers Earn Berths In Finals Meet

The Montclair Swim Team placed two swimmers in the finals of the Southern Pacific Association AAU Junior Olympics. Alice Hall took second in the 50 yard breast stroke, sixth in the 100 yard breast stroke and eighth in the 50 yard freestyle. Earl Welliver placed eighth in the 100 yard butterfly.

The team will host a Pentathlon at Montclair High School May 12.

In recent action the swimmers took 29 medals in a long distance meet at Chaffey High School. Montclair placed first in the boys 13-17 4 x 200 meter relay, second in the 13-17 girls 4 x 200 meter relay, second in the girls 12 and under 4 x 100 meter relay and third in the boys 12 and under 4 x 100 meter relay.

Individual winners in the 7-8 age group were Patty Bergstahl, fourth in the 100 meter freestyle and fourth in the 100 meter individual medley; Christina Dudash, third in the 100 meter freestyle; Ryce Welliver, second in the 100 meter freestyle and first in the 100 meter individual medley.

The 9-10 age group found Bobbi Tylke fifth in the 400 meter freestyle and fifth in the 200 meter individual medley. Alicia Tait placed sixth in the 400 meter freestyle and fourth in the 200 meter individual medley. David Neaul placed fifth in the 400 meter freestyle and fifth in the 200 meter individual medley.

In the 11-12 age bracket Alice Hall again did well, placing first in the 400 meter freestyle and sixth in the 200 meter individual medley. Margie Burroughs placed fifth in the 200 meter individual medley. Earl Welliver was first in the 400 meter freestyle and first in the 200 meter

style and fourth in the 100 meter individual medley; Christina Dudash, third in the 100 meter freestyle; Ryce Welliver, second in the 100 meter freestyle and first in the 100 meter individual medley.

San Antonio League Track Is Completed

San Antonio League teams met Friday night for the finals track and field meet to qualify athletes for this week's CIF preliminaries at Chaffey High.

Action included the setting of seven records, three in varsity competition. Ganesh High placed 14 followed by Chino with 10.

Chino's Gene Bernard tied the high jump mark with a leap of 6-4. Claremont's Mitch Gordien placed second and Montclair's Cornett was third. Marcus Gordien of Claremont put the shot 57-11 1/2. He exceeded the old mark by more than two feet.

Chino's Mike Nau set the third varsity record in the 440 yard run. His 49.0 bettered the old mark of 49.5 set by Pomona's Mark Acosta in 1972. Montclair's Gonzales placed second.

Chino's Don Cossey took the 220 in 22.4, followed by Bryant of Montclair and Allen of Claremont. Scott of Upland took the mile run in a relatively slow 4:27.2. Staley of Ganesh took second and Montclair's Candelaria was third.

In the two mile Kryczko of Upland was first in a time of 9:30.5. Teammate Gengen followed in second place.

The 120 high and 180 low hurdles belonged to Martin of Upland.

Herb Robinson of Pomona bettered the junior varsity high hurdle mark with a 15.4 effort, clipping one-tenth of a second off the old mark held by teammate Andre Hall since 1972. Hall was in the race and timed at 15.4 also, but was beaten at the tape.

Chino registered the most firsts for varsity competition with Bernard heading the high jumpers, Nau the 440 and Cossey the 220. Nau and Cossey then led the 440 and mile relay teams to first place. Alan Reid and Mike Nieman made up the remainder of the 440 foursome while Jim Church and Don Norris were the other members of the mile quartet.

Chino's Mike Nau set the third varsity record in the 440 yard run. His 49.0 bettered the old mark of 49.5 set by Pomona's Mark Acosta in 1972. Montclair's Gonzales placed second.

Chino's Don Cossey took the 220 in 22.4, followed by Bryant of Montclair and Allen of Claremont. Scott of Upland took the mile run in a relatively slow 4:27.2. Staley of Ganesh took second and Montclair's Candelaria was third.

John Sandoval homered for Alta Loma in the third inning with catcher Gary Sloan on base.

In other action, the team that started Alta Loma's troubles, the Ontario Jaguars, dealt another blow, this time to Royal Oak. The Jags took a 5-1 victory behind the pitching of Ed Rubidoux and a four run rally in the second. Corky Phillips singled to drive in Brian Stitt and Bob Fry. Duane Moser contributed a two-run double.

Craig Anderson led the Mustangs to their 11th victory in league competition by allowing six hits and striking out three. His pitching opponent was Pat Alexander.

Alexander held the Mustangs with no trouble during the first inning, but gave up five runs in the second. Steve Reinhardt led the inning off by getting to first with a pitch that struck him.

One out later Mickey Busal came to first on an Alta Loma error, Dave Berry walked and Greg Johnston got the second of four hits and a pair of RBIs. Marty Shepherd doubled and Randy Swartwood singled to total the five runs.

Johnston ended the afternoon with four hits in five attempts and six putouts in centerfield.

Gladstone now has a half game lead in second place over Royal Oak by winning their contest against San Dimas. Gladstone's Eric Mustad had a no-hitter going when Rich Espinoza of the Saints homered in the fifth for his team's only score.

Bonita again revealed a change of character from the first of the year by taking another contest against Sierra Vista, 3-0.

San Antonio action found Montclair come from behind to take Upland 5-2. The Highlanders had a 1-0 lead after two innings, but the Cavs rallied to score three runs in the fourth and two in the sixth for the three run margin of victory.

The fourth inning action found Mike Walters walking, a single from Dale Biggs and a double from Bruce Richardson for two RBIs. Steve Stenoski then doubled to score Richardson.

Stenoski finished the day three-for-three at the plate and had two RBIs.

Pomona set back Damien 3-2. Troy Baird's triple in the fourth inning with Les Christensen's walk and Larry Brown aboard from an error was the margin of victory needed with the two RBIs.

Action earlier this week and Friday will finish up league action in the valley. The first round of CIF playoffs will begin next Tuesday.

A tight race is still in progress for San Antonio's second place team. Claremont is assured at least a tie in the first place berth, but Ganesh, Chino and Montclair are all within a half game of each other for second place.

We're not giving away fennecs this week.

F is for fennec.

The fennec is the smallest of all foxes and also has the largest ears. Its head and body length is only about 14 to 16 inches. The animal inhabits desert areas of North Africa, Arabia and the Sinai Peninsula. It does not need to drink water, but will do so if water is available. Living in burrows, fennecs come out at night to feed. Young ones are sometimes captured and fattened for food in impoverished areas. Besides enabling the fennec to hear extremely well, the oversized ears aid the body's cooling system, allowing heat to escape.

entertainment*Fiddle, Banjo Contest At Calico Ghost Town

An Old-Time Fiddle and Banjo Contest to be held at Calico Ghost Town will highlight the Calico Spring Festival scheduled May 12 and 13. The day-long contests will start at noon Saturday and 10 a.m. Sunday, with registration beginning at 9 a.m. both days.

Hank's Hotel will be the stage for the banjo and fiddle competition, while the guitar and group competition is to be held in the Silver Bowl just off Main Street. Registration will take place at both locations and an entry fee of $5 will be collected. Applicants may preregister by mail for $4 through the May 4 deadline. The entry fee will cover all competitions and the applicant can enter as many as three categories.

Prizes, provided by music stores and other businesses, will be given for first through third place in all competitions and categories. Each of the four competitions -- fiddle, banjo, guitar and group -- will contain two categories, traditional music and blue grass music.

First place prizes for the fiddle, banjo and guitar competitions are a hand-made fiddle, a 1906 E. M. Hall banjo, and 1945 Martin guitar provided by the Guitar Workshop in San Bernardino. In the group competition, a $100 group gift certificate will be given by Danny's Guitar Shop in Riverside. Winners of each of the competitions will also have an opportunity to perform in a gig at the Penny University Music Hall and Beany's in San Bernardino.

Second place winners in the fiddle, banjo and guitar competitions will receive $15 gift certificates from McCabes in Santa Monica. A $50 group gift certificate will be given by Musicland Violin Center in Riverside for the group competition winners.

Wall plaques from the House of Pompeii in San Diego and a $25 group certificate from the Guitar Store in Pomona will be given as third place prizes.

Prizes will also be given through third place in the traditional and blue grass categories of the competition. They will include passes to Knott's Berry Farm, Magic Mountain, and the Penny University. Also given as prizes will be copies of the album Ballad of Calico by Kenny Rogers and the First Edition and other records provided by Victor's Music in Barstow.

Pie tables will be set up in town for those musically inclined participants who do not wish to enter the competition but would enjoy singing three tunes for a free pie. Other attractions will include egg tossin', greased pole climbing, pizza eating, barbershop singing, antique cars, street dancing, trail rides and a variety of Mother's Day activities on Sunday. A silver mining boom town of the 1880's, Calico has been restored and is now a San Bernardino County Regional Park offering its visitors a chance to experience the Old West, complete with a general store, schoolhouse, saloon, jail, graveyard and even a walk through one of the old mine tunnels.

Calico Ghost Town is located just north of Interstate 15, seven miles east of Barstow.

The Fiddle and Banjo Contest is co-sponsored by the San Bernardino County Regional Parks Department and the Guitar Workshop in San Bernardino. Applications may be obtained by writing Banjo Contest, 739 W. Highland Ave., San Bernardino, 92405. For further information contact the Regional Parks Department, 2555 Devore Road, San Bernardino, 92407 or telephone (714) 887-6486.

"Grease," the new 50's musical comedy that is one of the biggest hits of the current Broadway season, opens at the Shubert Theatre in Century City for an eight-week limited engagement beginning June 13th.

"Grease" brings back the look and sound of the late 50's, the first such musical since "Bye Bye Birdie" and equally as successful. Writers Jim Jacobs and Warren Casey, who were both teenagers during the 50's, have steered clear of the "camp" variety of musical that this type of material so often provokes.

Instead, they have attempted to recapture the flavor of that inane world of the early rockers, when the boys wore their hair short, but slicked back with grease into the famous D.A. and the girls wore poodle skirts, penny loafers, and threw pajama parties where they smoked cigarettes instead of pot.

And the music is all there, reminiscent of the Elvis Presley heyday, with such titles as "Rock 'n' Roll Party Queen," "It's Raining on Prom Night," "Beauty School Dropout," "Look at Me, I'm Sandra Dee," "Shakin' at the High School Hop," and many others that read like a roll of the Top 10 of the 1950's.

Patricia Birch, who choreographed the Broadway production, has done the same for the National Company. Douglas Watt, critic for the New York Daily News, hailed "Grease" as "the dancingest show in town" while another critic called the show "pure dynamite." Nothing has been spared by the creative staff in their attempt to accurately recreate the mood and feeling of the 50's, which in "Grease" is seen through the eyes of the Senior Class of Rydell High. The characters, in fact, are based on real people who went to high school with the writers. The high school yearbook photographs that decorate the proscenium arch of the set are classmates of the producers, from Baltimore.

The entire production staff of the Broadway production has been reassembled to create the National Company of "Grease." Tom Moore is again directing. Musical supervision, vocal and dance arrangements are by Louis St. Louis; orchestrations are by Michael Leonard, and sound is by Jack Shearing. Mack Schleifer is musical director. Sets, costumes and lighting are by Douglas W. Schmidt, Carrie F. Robbins and Karl Eigsti respectively.

"Grease," which celebrated its first anniversary on Broadway in February, was nominated last spring for seven Tony Awards, and producers Kenneth Waissman and Maxine Fox (at 31 and 28 respectively) are the youngest producers ever to be so honored.

Mail orders for the limited engagement may now be obtained by sending a check and self-addressed envelope to: Shubert Theatre, 2020 Avenue of the Stars, Los Angeles 90067. For information call (213) 553-9000. Theatre party and group information may be obtained by calling Grace Melton at the same number.

Performances are scheduled for Tuesday thru Saturday evenings at 8:30 p.m. with a Sunday evening performance at 7:30 p.m. There will be matinees on Wednesdays and Saturdays at 2:30 p.m.

Tickets are priced at $8.50-$8.00 - $6.50 - $5.50 & $3.90. Tuesdays through Fridays and Sunday evenings; Saturday nights are $9.50 - $9.00 - $7.50 - $6.50-$5.00; Wednesday matinee, $5.50 - $5.00 - $4.00 - $3.00 & $2.50 with the Saturday matinee scheduled at $6.50 - $6.00 - $5.50 - $4.50 & $3.50.

Iris, Daylilies—Beauty With Little Care

For masses of beautiful flowers in the border or plants that when not in bloom make handsome foliage accents, and all with almost no care, daylilies and Iris lead the perennial parade.

There are two kinds of perennials called daylilies -- the broad-leaved Hosta, Funkia, or Plantain lily, blooming about August, blue or white, and the Hemerocallis, with fragrant, lily-or amaryllis-shaped flowers in ravishing colors that can be chosen for succession of bloom from June to October.

The white-flowered Hostas like shade as do the variegated, and make handsome green clumps where many other perennials can't be located. But it is the Hemerocallis daylily we are considering here.

If you are familiar only with the old-fashioned "lemon" lily or the wild tawny lily of country roadsides and have not been to daylily show or seen a catalog describing the literally hundreds of named varieties in beautiful tones and color combinations, you have a thrill coming

MANY KINDS

There are many more than two kinds of Iris -- the little Iris pumila, cristata, the orchid-like Japanese Higo Iris that likes moist rich soil, the Siberian, and others. The one considered here is the familiar Bearded or German Iris, the "rainbow flower" in a myriad of lovely colors and tones and combinations.

The time to plant or transplant Iris in most regions is from July into September. Hemerocallis daylilies can be planted any time except in winter. Ideal time is April, July, August, and September.

Both of these hardy, care-free perennials have been hybridized so extensively and therefore come in so many color combinations and shades that to choose them is exciting but almost bewildering.

If you are just stepping out, a collection offered by one of the mail-order catalogs may be a help. For example, Wayside has a "Greek god" Hemerocallis collection (one each for $9.50, or three each for $27) including Aphrodite (golden yellow, late mid-season), Apollo (apricot with deeper apricot throat), Hyperion (fragrant, lemon-yellow, wonderful for cutting), and Helios (flame red).

ANOTHER COLLECTION

Another collection (Colonial Dame, Evelyn Claar, Towhead, and Gusto) is a banded apricot, an exquisite salmon-pink with gold throat, a pale yellow with deeper throat and a currant-red.

I particularly love the salmons and the deep mahogany-reds with gold throats and frilled edges, and once made up a collection of my own from a Gilbert Wild & Sons descriptive picture list with various heights and blooming times that went from June to September.

And don't miss Hyperion. It is a huge fragrant lemon-yellow, very strong and prolific. There is a dwarf Hyperion, now, too.

As for Iris, go to an Iris show in June provided with pencil and notebook, or choose from an illustrated mail-order catalog the color combinations you delight in, or a collection. Some nurseries won't deliver until late summer for fall planting and next year's blooms. One year, however, I set in quite a few in May that bloomed the first season.

MODEST GROUP

A modest collection you can get right away from Burgess in Michigan is made up of Solid Gold (deep yellow), Flamingo (cameo-pink with tangerine beard), Harbor Blue (sapphire blue), and Color Carnival (deep pink with purple markings and tangerine beard), one each for $4.90. There are marvelous blues. I needed more blue in my border once and added glorious blue Iris.

For low mass plantings the Dwarf Iris is a happy choice. The flowers are almost as big as those of the Tall Bearded Iris, but the plant grows only up to 10 inches high. Groups of one color each make a pretty planting -- purple, white, yellow, or blue.

The swordlike leaves of the Bearded Iris and the fountainlike sprays of the Hemerocallis daylilies make attractive green accents in the borders all season. In a big garden, a mass planting of Iris in bloom can be a ravishing sight.

SHRUBBRY BORDER

A long shrubbery border with many colored daylilies in front all along it gives flowers all season with no care.

Pot-Up Some Color For Your Porch

The plant population explosion is being heard throughout the land. In the Golden State, where favorable weather and an unsurpassed variety of plant materials make this a year-round phenomenon, more and more Californians are into growing color in containers.

Interest in plants, today, is phenomenal and carries over into the featuring of flowering favorites in containers. A fun and challenging experience is to shop for and discover unique or extraordinary container, or contemporary contrivance in which to showcase the beauty of plants.

Equally exciting an adventure is to come up with combinations that reflect a creative flair. Happily, there is no lack of containers or color bearers to provide spring and summertime enjoyment. The possibilities are limited only by one's imagination.

Growing Ivy Geraniums in a moss-lined wire basket is hardly an innovation. But, combining Dwarf Marigolds with the Geraniums, and adding white Alyssum for accent -- implanted on the sides of the basket -- produces a refreshing creation. This can be suspended as a delightful hanging basket on the porch or patio.

Oval earthenware containers have pockets for planting small-growing plants -- similar to Strawberry Jars. Create a decorative accessory by tucking-in tiny Zinnias. There are Thunbergias, Peter Pan and Button types to use in small pots or in containers with limited space. And, the creation will dazzle onlookers into fall. Zinnias are excellent choices, too, for gaily-decorating Mexican pottery planters.

Petunias are favorite summer flowers and the individual members of this huge family lend themselves to growing in containers. The large single-flowering types cascade beautifully from hanging baskets, or over the brim of a large tub. Feature carnation-flowering and double Petunias in smaller pots for up-close enjoyment, says the California Association of Nurserymen.

and Flower Show Friday, May 4, in the lobby of the Los Angeles Convention Center. The Show will run through May 13.

With "Innovations for Environmental Living" being the theme, many of the hundreds of exhibits will be stressing ecology wherever possible. One of these is the Environmental Communities 1,400 sq. foot modular home decorated by Richard W. Lee. It meets the construction material and appliance usage specifications of the Southern California Gas Company's new CONCERN energy conservation program.

Nine leading gas range manufacturers will show more than fifty of their 1973 models in a display adjacent to the home. The Gas Company itself will unveil an "Energy" audio-visual display. It will detail steps being taken domestically and worldwide to acquire new gas supplies for this area.

A score of decorator rooms and a dozen model kitchens will highlight time and energy-savers.

Prominent chefs and home economists including Mike Roy, Martha Randall, Barbara Lane and a dozen others will cover economy in the kitchen while demonstrating food preparation.

Rosedale's Nurseries will landscape the entire show with shrubs, trees, plants and bushes following the guideline "Green Survival Begins With You."

Other areas of interest will be found in displays by major local, regional and national exhibitors including White Front, Armstrong Cork, Vogue - Butterick, Buick, New York Life Insurance, Kohler Co., Jenn-Aire and Amana.

Thousands of dollars in free prizes will include a new gas range given away nightly, a Riviera Spa therapy pool, Bernina, Pfaff, Necchi and White/Elma sewing machines, a home wall entertainment center, a pool chlorine generator, Bonsai trees and more.

Home and Flower Show hours will be 10:30 a.m. to 10:00 p.m., Monday through Thursday; 10:30 a.m. to 11:00 p.m., Fridays; noon to 11:00 p.m., Saturdays and noon to 9:00 p.m., Sundays. Admission is $2.00 for Adults -- 50 cents for Children 6 to 14 years when accompanied by an Adult.

'Rose' Strawberries Now On The Market

Consumers of breakfast cereals wouldn't dream of adding roses to the dish, but much preferred strawberries, members of the rose family, are now in season and available in all major food stores.

Harvesting of this popular delicacy has started in Orange County, and is now hitting its peak, reported Jim Manassero, Row Crop Manager for the Irvine Company's Agriculture Division.

Manassero said that at the present time it appears the price of strawberries during the 1973 season will remain comparable to the 1972 prices.

The Irvine Company has 40 acres in strawberries this year, Manassero said. The 1973 harvest should produce more than 12,500 trays a week (a tray contains 12 pints) during the peak season.

The bulk of the Irvine Company strawberry crop, carrying the Crimson King label, is shipped to East Coast and European markets by Mendelson-Zeller Co., Inc., a San Francisco world-wide fruit and vegetable distributor. A small portion of the crop is generally sold through independent roadside vegetable stands on the Irvine Company ranch lands.

Gardener's Checklist

1. Deepwatering encourages deep roots. After watering, dig down and see how far the moisture has penetrated.

2. Set-out annual flowers now for summer color. There are many to choose from, including Asters, Dwarf Dahlias, Petunias, Marigolds, Periwinkle, and Zinnias.

3. Feed Azaleas and Camellias this month with an acid type plant food. Water them frequently during warm weather.

4. For a distinctive accessory, grow a Dwarf Citrus in a redwood tub on the sunny porch or patio.

5. Set-out plants of tomatoes, eggplant, peppers and lettuce.

IT'S THAT TIME -- It's time to shop for chrysanthemums. Nurseries have blooming 'mums available, in pots, throughout the year; and this month you'll find young, rooted cuttings of plants which will fill the fall garden with color. Assure yourself of autumnal hues by selecting 'mums now; there is great variety in colors and flower forms. Spiders such as this photo shows require little attention for the beauty and enjoyment they provide.

Musical Comedy Slated At Cal Poly

The Broadway musical comedy hit, "A Funny Thing Happened on the Way to the Forum," will be staged two weekends in May at California State Polytechnic University, Pomona. A joint production of the music and drama departments, Forum will open Thursday, May 10 and run through Saturday, May 12, and will be repeated Thursday through Saturday, May 17-19, at 8:30 p.m. in the university theater.

Called by its Cal Poly director, "merry and mirthful entertainment," Forum concerns the connivings of a slave to get his freedom by obtaining for his master a beautiful girl whom the master has set his heart on. Dr. James L. Martin, assistant professor of drama in charge of the production, says the plot "weds hilarious illogicalities with zany vaudeville routines."

The musical numbers, which range from witty patter-songs to ballads, will be under the direction of L. Keith Weeks, professor of music.

The choreography is the responsibility of Dr. Nancy Buyer, lecturer in drama and specialist in mime and movement theater.

Heading the 18-member cast as the slave Pseudolus is Michele Eugene Anderson II, son of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Anderson of 578 Oliver St., San Pedro. Hero, the master will be played by Robert Lee Tickell of 424 Anderdon Court, Pomona.

Playing opposite Tickell as the female lead, Philia, is Beth Browning, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Robert E. Browning, 646 N. Naomi, Burbank.

Other members of the cast are: Barry Dunahoo, son of Mr. and Mrs. V. N. Dunahoo, 419 N. Nora, West Covina; sophomore drama major, playing Hysterium.

Catherine Sommer, who is the daughter of Peter Sommer of East Mar, Tiburon; and of Barbara Sommer of 5060 Rincon, Santa Rosa plays the role of Domina.

Gary Guidinger, son of Elmer A. Pierce, 484 Calmgrove, Covina; senior behavioral sciences major, taking the part of Senes.

Roy Conli, son of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Conli, 5428 N. La Presa, El Monte; freshman drama major, as Lycus.

Robert Smith, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Stuart B. Smith Jr., 1541 E. Vine Ave., West Covina; playing The Geminæ.

Jeri Lentz, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. Lentz, 1631 Boradmoor Ave., West Covina; freshman drama major, as The Geminæ.

Monte VanVleet, son of Mr. and Mrs. Ralph VanVleet, 1215 Camilia Rd., West Covina; freshman drama major plays the role of Miles Gloriosus.

Jack Newby, son of Mr. and Mrs. G. W. Newby, 4817 Candish, Charter Oak; sophomore drama major, taking the part of Protean.

Ray Mooren, son of Mr. and Mrs. A. Leal, 868 Dace Ave., Chula Vista; senior data processing major, as Protean.

Steve Milliken, son of Mrs. Berta Milliken, 1352 W. 5th St., Apt. D22, Ontario; sophomore English major playing Protean.

Rosemary Seuberling, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. H. P. Seuberling, 654 West H St., Ontario; junior behavioral sciences major playing Tintinabula.

Laura Heidrich, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. F. C. Heidrich of New York; junior English major, taking the part of Vibrata.

Cathy Fauntleroy, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Jack Fauntleroy, 525 Thornton Ave., #9, Hemet; senior theater major plays the role of Gymasia.

Assistant director Paul Gebs of West Covina is a freshman drama major.

Tickets are $2 general admission, and $1.50 for students. Reservations may be made by calling 598-4546 or 598-4549 between 9 a.m. and 3 p.m.; or tickets may be purchased at the box office the night of the performance.

Watercolors, Oil Paintings On Display

Watercolors and oil paintings by Elfrieda A. Jaeger of Claremont are now on display at Pomona First Federal Savings and Loan Association, 393 W. Foothill Blvd., Claremont. The exhibition will continue through June.

The landscapes represent Southern California areas, especially those around Claremont, as seen by Mrs. Jaeger in weekly explorations.

Mrs. Jaeger, who signs her work Freda, is a graduate of Pomona College, in her year at Claremont Graduate School her instructors included Jean Goodwin Ames and Walter Gashin.

Mrs. Jaeger has taught art and crafts in Adult Education at Claremont High School and for seven years taught art crafts at the high school level. She was an elementary teacher for 13 years. It was after her retirement that she resumed her own activities in art and music. Her late afternoons now are occupied with teaching a children's class in painting and study.

Mrs. Jaeger resides at 4456 N. Oak Lane, Claremont with her husband Dr. Chester Jaeger, former mayor of Claremont and professor emeritus of Mathematics at Pomona College and Claremont Men's College.

Pushers Under Attack

Sen. Alan Cranston announced recently that he is supporting legislation for stiffer penalties for dope peddlers and to cut off foreign aid to "pusher nations" that refuse to halt the international drug trade.

Cranston said they are the latest moves in a "seven-pronged Congressional attack" he has helped launch against drug and alcohol abuse in the United States.

"A broad-based approach is essential if we are to wipe out the drug menace that poisons the lives of one Californian in every 400, and the alcohol problem that caused more than 2,500 California highway deaths last year," Cranston said. "There are no snappy one-liners or easy answers to the problem of busting up the $5 billion-a-year U.S. drug racket, or for curbing the one drunk driver out of every 50 motorists who is on the road in any given night."

Cranston, who is chairman of two Senate subcommittees that have been looking into the problems, said he is working for passage of seven different drug and alcohol bills—two that he authored and five he is co-sponsoring—in this session of Congress.

The bills range from U.S. economic sanctions against "pusher nations" like Iran and Pakistan that allow international drug traffic, to tougher penalties for drug dealers and to expanded treatment for addicts and alcoholics.

Cranston was in Concord to confer with home builders, civic and union leaders, and to speak at a testimonial dinner for Assemblyman Dan Boatwright.

Police officials in both the suburban community of Concord in northern California and the major urban city of Los Angeles in the south report that more than half of their arrests involve drug users," Cranston said. "Concord has seen a steady increase in drug use despite the city's strong commitment to drug education and the existence of what I am told is a highly successful drug counseling center."

"Two years ago there were an estimated 200,000 heroin users in the U.S. Now there are an estimated 560,000," Cranston said. "Perhaps most tragically of all, drug abuse is rampant among our youngest citizens. Drug abuse is a national epidemic that is denying America the rich abilities and talents of many of our people."

"The average junkie spends $8,000 per year to support his habit and often turns to crime for the money," Cranston continued. "That is why police in some parts of the country say that as many as seven out of 10 crimes are drug-related."

Cranston is cosponsor with Sen. Harold Hughes (D) of Iowa of two drug measures that are already law—the Comprehensive Drug Abuse Prevention and Control Act of 1970 that provides for community-based treatment and rehabilitation for addicts and the Drug Abuse Office and Treatment Act of 1972 that established a special federal office to develop programs for drug abuse prevention.

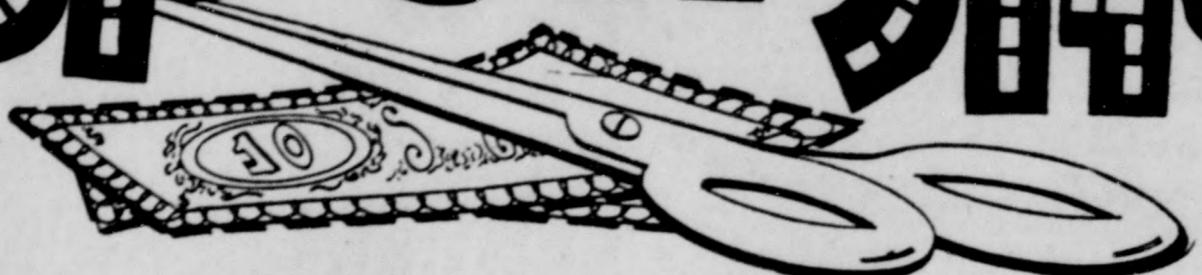

The seven bills Cranston is working on include:

The Federal Narcotic Drug Trafficking Offenses and Sentencing Act (S.1137) that Cranston has co-sponsored with a fellow Labor Committee member, Sen. Jacob Javits (R) of New York. The bill provides stiffer federal penalties for drug pushers ranging from mandatory five-year sentences for first-time offenders to life imprisonment for second offenders dealing in more than 10 ounces—a $30,000 case or more.

Cranston stressed that the measure is designed to drive pushers out of business, especially "the big pusher who is often more successful in eluding prosecution".

Legislation being drafted by Sen. Vance Hartke (D) of Indiana that would shut off U.S. foreign aid to countries that have to date refused to cooperate in efforts to stop illicit international drug traffic.

PUBLIC NOTICES

CITY OF MONTCLAIR
NOTICE INVITING BIDS
Sealed proposals will be received at the Office of the City Clerk, City Hall, Montclair, California, until 10:00 o'clock a.m. on Friday, May 25, 1973, in the matter of the construction of PCC curb only for curb returns; 18" gutter, PCC curb only, 6" PCC curb and 18" gutter; 6" PCC curb and 6" gutter; 8" PCC curb and 18" gutter; 10" PCC curb and 18" gutter only; variable PCC curb and 18" gutter; 4" PCC sidewalk; 6" PCC driveway approaches; and 8" PCC cross-gutter for a twelve month period beginning June 1, 1973, and ending May 31, 1974, in the City of Montclair, California, as ordered from time to time by the City Engineer of the City of Montclair.

The Council hereby invites sealed bids and proposals for doing the work described in City Engineer's Project O.E. No. 7 and providing for the construction of:

1. PCC curb only for curb returns
2. PCC curb only
3. 6" PCC curb and 18" gutter
4. 6" PCC curb and 6" gutter
5. 8" PCC curb and 18" gutter
6. 10" PCC curb and 18" gutter
7. Variable PCC curb and 18" gutter
8. 18" gutter only
9. 4" PCC sidewalk
10. 6" PCC drive approaches
11. 8" PCC cross-gutter

The land upon which the work will be done will be prepared to the required grade to within 1/10 of a foot either above or below grade by the City of Montclair before the contractor commences his work under this contract. The contractor will install all work to be required grade as established by the City. Contractor will include in his bid all necessary epoxy for gluing gutter to existing curb. Epoxy to be HI Bond 210 or equal.

The proposals will be publicly opened and read in the Council Chambers, 5111 Benito Street, Montclair, California, at 10:00 o'clock a.m. on the date above mentioned.

Plans and specifications and all contract documents may be obtained at the Office of the City Engineer, City Hall, 5111 Benito Street, Montclair, California. A non-refundable deposit of $5.00 for each set of specifications with accompanying drawings will be required.

Each proposal must be accompanied by a certified check or bid bond in the amount of One Thousand Dollars ($1,000.00) as a guarantee that the bidder, if the award is made to him in accordance with the terms of his proposal will promptly execute a contract in the required form, secure payment of workmen's compensation insurance, and furnish a satisfactory faithful performance bond and a labor and material bond. Each of said bonds shall be in the sum of Ten Thousand Dollars ($10,000.00). In addition to the above and if requested by the City, the bidder shall furnish a financial statement of recent date. Failure to comply with this requirement will render a bid informal and shall be sufficient cause for rejection.

This contract is also called "Open-End Contract" for the work to be done as stated above, but not to exceed the amount of $10,000.00 ordered and not completed at any one time. This call for bids contemplates that purchase orders shall be issued to the contractor receiving the award of contract stating the location and classification of the actual work to be performed on each job.

The contract, however, does not prohibit the City of Montclair from contracting with others to perform any specific project which may involve the same type of work involved in this contract. This contract simply provides the City of Montclair an offer of a unit price structure against which orders may be issued in accordance with the proposal and these specifications.

Although it is understood that any or all bids may be rejected for various reasons, it is further understood that insofar as calculating the lowest bid in the contract the following formula will be applied by the City Engineer:

(a) Each item in the proposal has been assigned a weighted percentage figure. All these percentage figures total 100%. These percentage figures represent the City Engineer's best estimate based upon his experience of the relative importance or frequency an item will be used under this contract within a one year period.

(b) The percentage figure assigned to an item multiplied by the unit price shall be designated the weighted

NOTICE OF
PUBLIC HEARING
ZRV-37

NOTICE IS HEREBY GIVEN that the Planning Commission of the City of Upland will hold a public hearing on Thursday, May 24, 1973, at 7:30 p.m. in the Council Chambers of the Upland City Hall to consider a request for a variance to allow a manufacturing plant to exceed a punch press tonnage of 20 tons (requests approval of up to 75 tons as regulated by Section 9110.84-B-(10), Chapter 1, Article IX of the Upland Municipal Code); also, to determine that plastic is a prepared material similar to and no more objectionable than those listed in Section 9110.84-B-(10), Chapter 1, Article IX of the Upland Municipal Code, in order to manufacture plastic nursery containers in an M-1 Zone, on the following described property:

More generally described as approximately 4 1/2 acres located on the North side of West Ninth Street, 1,600 feet West of Mountain Avenue at 1431 West Ninth Street.

All persons interested are invited to attend and present evidence concerning the existing conditions of this area. Maps and other pertinent data may be inspected at the Planning Department prior to the public hearing.
